AVELEDA

Aveleda Alvarinho in the world of AVELEDA

A family-owned Portuguese brand that has been creating high-quality wines from the Vinho Verde Wine Region since its foundation in 1870. With almost 2 centuries of tradition, Aveleda is the biggest and most important exporter of wines in Portugal with 35% of market share.

Aveleda Alvarinho is a new approach to Alvarinho (also known as Albariño). The night harvest combined with the granitic and sandy soils of the Estate produce a stronger and more mineral Alvarinho. The result is an intense and harmonious wine with a piquant yet smooth and velvety structure.

Quality Wines from VINHO VERDE WINE REGION

- Vinho Verde is Portugal's largest wine DOC region;
- A Region famous for producing elegant, fresh, fruity, lower-alcohol wines;
- Vinho Verde region represents 16% market share in wine export in terms of value;
- Vinho Verde produces an unique wine profile in the world, a result of: indigenous grape varieties such as alvarinho, loureiro, arinto, cooler climates, maritime influence and soils (granit);

Aveleda Alvarinho in ESSENCE

- Considered by many as the most noble white grape variety in Portugal;
- Great aging potential, acquiring stronger aromas of tropical fruits;
- A varietal born out of Aveleda's ambition to explore the unique potential of the Alvarinho in different terroirs within the Vinho Verde Wine Region;

Tasting Notes

With bold citric colours, Aveleda Alvarinho combines the rich body native to the Alvarinho variety with the mineral and citric notes typical of the sub-region. A well-structured white wine with delicious hints of passion fruit and white flowers.
